Welcome to myLoyola

myLoyola provides you with online access to your medical record. It can help you participate in your healthcare and communicate with your providers.

From myLoyola, you can:

- Review summaries of your previous appointments, including issues addressed during each visit, your vital signs and tests or referrals that were ordered.
- View your medications, including dosage information and instructions and request a refill.
- View new lab results, as well as trends over time. For example, view results for your past cholesterol tests on a graph to see if you're close to meeting your target number.
- Access your family members' medical records. For example, you can view your child's growth charts, immunization history and upcoming appointments.

This guide provides an overview of many of myLoyola's features and how to use them.

Sign up for a myLoyola account

To sign up for myLoyola, you must be at least 12 years old. There are several different methods of myLoyola signup that may be used by different departments across the organization:

- Clinic staff may sign you up directly while you're at the front desk or in the exam room.
- A myLoyola activation code can be printed on your After Visit Summary.
- A myLoyola activation code can be emailed to you.
- A myLoyola activation letter (complete with the activation code) can be sent to you. Request an activation code if you don't already have one.

Alternatively, if you haven't been given an activation code, you can request one online. To request an activation code online:

1. On the myLoyola login page, click Sign Up Now in the New User? section.
2. Click the Request Online button under the No Activation Code? section and follow the prompts.

3. An email with an activation code will be sent to you.

Use your activation code to sign up

After you have an activation code, you can use it to complete the myLoyola signup process.

1. From the myLoyola login page, click Sign Up Now in the New User? section.
2. Enter your activation code and other personal verification items, such as the last four digits of your Social Security number and your date of birth. Click Next.
3. On the next page, choose the following:
 - myLoyola username. This should be something that others wouldn't be likely to guess but easy for you to remember. It cannot be changed at any time.

- Password. This should be a unique combination of numbers and letters, using both uppercase and lowercase letters. Your password must be different from your myLoyola username. Choose a password that you don't use for other websites.
- Security question. This question will be used to verify your identity if you forget your myLoyola password. Choose a security question from the list and enter your answer. Your answer cannot include your myLoyola password.

Log in to myLoyola

1. In your web browser, enter the myloyola.luhs.org and access the login page.
2. Enter your myLoyola username and password.
3. Click Sign In.

What if I forget my myLoyola ID or password?

Click the link below the login or password field for assistance. You will be prompted to answer some security questions to verify your identity. If you are still having trouble logging in, contact myLoyolaNotify@lumc.edu.

Messaging

View messages from your clinic

You can read any messages sent by your doctor or other clinic staff by going to your Inbox (Messaging > Inbox). Click the message you want to read. From here, you can reply to the message or delete it.

If you're looking for a specific message, you can enter key words in the Search field on the Inbox page to locate them.

Receive email when new myLoyola messages are available

You can choose to receive notification by email to let you know when a new message is available in your myLoyola Inbox.

1. Go to Preferences > Notifications.
2. Select the email next to New Messages.
3. Update your email address if needed to ensure that you receive the notifications.
4. Click Save Changes.

Ask your doctor for medical advice

If you have a non-urgent medical question, you can send a message to your doctor's staff members. This message is secure, meaning your information stays private as it is sent over the Internet.

You may use the Get Medical Advice feature if you're not sure whether you should come in for an appointment, if you need clarification on the dosage of one of your medications or something that was discussed in a recent visit, or if you just want advice about a common illness. Your request will be addressed in two business days.  Important: Do not use this feature for emergencies.

1. Go to Messaging > Get Medical Advice.
2. Click General Question.
3. Select a recipient from the list. This list might include your primary care provider, another doctor with whom you've recently had an office visit, or the general nursing staff at the clinic.
4. Select a subject for your message and enter your question.
5. When you are finished, click Send.

If you've opted to receive email for new messages in your myLoyola account, you'll receive a message letting you know that the clinic has responded to your request.

Subject:

Hey doc-
I developed a rash on my arm while I was camping this weekend. I've tried hydrocortisone cream and calamine lotion, but nothing seems to help. Do you have any other recommendations for how to treat this?
Thanks,
Theo

Family Access

If you have access to your family members' medical records, you can view most of the information in their records in the same way that you view your own. Some things that may be particularly useful include:

- Viewing or printing your child's immunization record
- Viewing your child's growth charts
- Viewing a family member's test results

This section explains how to access a family member's record and how to access growth charts and immunizations in a child's record.

Manage access to family members' records

You can request access to a family member's record or give another adult access to your own record by completing a form in myLoyola. You can also request a restriction to a minor's record in the case where another person should not be allowed to have access to the child's information. Your clinic will grant the appropriate access after they process the form.

1. Go to Preferences > Personalize or click the wrench icon below the proxy tabs.
2. Click the appropriate link depending on the type of access you need. You can:
 - Request access to a minor's record
 - Request restriction to a minor's record
 - Grant an adult access to your record
3. Complete the form that appears and click Submit Request.

Access a family member's record

After you've received permission, you can view your family member's records by clicking the tab for that family member in myLoyola.

After you read the proxy access disclaimer, click Accept to continue to your family member's chart.

View and print your child's immunization record

When you are in your child's record in myLoyola, go to My Medical Record > Immunizations. You can see the immunizations your child has received and the dates on which he/she received them. Click the immunization name to learn more.

To open a printer-friendly summary of your child's immunizations, click  .

Immunizations (Christine)

Click on an immunization name to see any additional details regarding that immunization.

Sign up for paperless billing.

Make a payment

When you have an outstanding account balance, you can make a payment directly through myLoyola.

1. Go to Billing > Billing Account Summary.
2. Click Pay.
3. Enter the amount to pay along with your credit card information. Click Continue.
4. Review your payment information and click Submit Payment.

Sign up for paperless billing

You can sign up to receive all of your statements through myLoyola rather than receiving a paper copy through the mail.

1. From the Billing Account Summary page, click the Sign up for paperless billing link.
2. If you want to receive an email or text message when a new paperless statement is available online, enter and verify your email address or mobile phone number and select the corresponding check box to receive notifications.
3. Select the I understand that I will no longer receive statements in the mail check box and click Sign Me Up.

Preferences and Administrative Features

Update your personal information

You can update your address, phone number or email address at any time so that your clinic always has the most up-to-date information in your record.

1. Go to Preferences > Demographics.
2. Enter the new information and click Accept Changes.
3. Confirm that your updated information is correct, and then click Submit Changes.

Change your myLoyola password or update your security question and answer

To ensure that your medical information stays protected, consider changing your myLoyola password periodically. To do so, go to Preferences > Security Settings. From this page, you can also update the security question and answer that are used when you forget your myLoyola username or password.

Mobile Apps

myLoyola for iOS and Android are portable versions of myLoyola that you can use to manage your health information on-the-go. The mobile apps contain many of the same features as the myLoyola website, allowing you to do all of the following, and more!

- View test results.
- Send and receive messages.
- Schedule and confirm upcoming appointments and view visit summaries for past appointments.
- View your health summary, including allergies, immunizations, current health issues and medications.
- View preventive care procedures and when they are due.
- Request and pay for medication refills.
- View billing statements and pay balances due and visit copays.
- Access family members' charts.

If you have an iOS device, you can pair it with Apple Watch™. With myLoyola for Apple Watch, you can:

- See alerts for new information in myLoyola.
- View upcoming appointments.
- Read messages.
- Review their medication list.
